

ORDER THESE EVENTS IN THE WAVE – REVISION ACTIVITY

1. Students in Mr Ross' class watch a doco of Nazi Germany + are shocked
2. Laurie and Amy's friendship takes a turn for the worse
3. Mr Ross is tired of students handing in 'sloppy' homework
4. Laurie and Ben go to Mr Ross and try to convince him to stop The Wave
5. The students start trying to recruit members around the school
6. David is angry and hits L., instantly realising what The Wave has done to him
7. Ben decides to teach students how something like Nazi Gmy happened
8. Laurie etc put out a special ed. of The Grapevine dedicated to The Wave
9. Laurie receives an anon. letter from a student bullied into joining
10. Mr Ross announces there will be a big Wave rally after school
11. David gets excited about what The Wave could do for his football team
12. Everyone goes to the final rally and Mr Ross reveals the truth
13. Laurie and David have their first argument about The Wave
14. Mr Ross hands out membership cards, invents mottos and gets people involved in The Wave
15. Laurie refuses to go to The Wave rally and is shunned because of it
16. David is convinced to talk to L. and convince her to 'stop' what she is doing

ORDER THESE EVENTS IN THE WAVE – REVISION ACTIVITY

1. Students in Mr Ross' class watch a doco of Nazi Germany + are shocked
2. Laurie and Amy's friendship takes a turn for the worse
3. Mr Ross is tired of students handing in 'sloppy' homework
4. Laurie and Ben go to Mr Ross and try to convince him to stop The Wave
5. The students start trying to recruit members around the school
6. David is angry and hits L., instantly realising what The Wave has done to him
7. Ben decides to teach students how something like Nazi Gmy happened
8. Laurie etc put out a special ed. of The Grapevine dedicated to The Wave
9. Laurie receives an anon. letter from a student bullied into joining
10. Mr Ross announces there will be a big Wave rally after school
11. David gets excited about what The Wave could do for his football team
12. Everyone goes to the final rally and Mr Ross reveals the truth
13. Laurie and David have their first argument about The Wave
14. Mr Ross hands out membership cards, invents mottos and gets people involved in The Wave
15. Laurie refuses to go to The Wave rally and is shunned because of it
16. David is convinced to talk to L. and convince her to 'stop' what she is doing